Too Many Detours

I must confess to one of my major frustrations as I reflect back on the year 2020: too many detours! Summertime on Alaska roads can be a blessing or a curse. For locals who have spent several months driving on treacherous wintry roads, there is always that anticipation of dry clear roads unencumbered by snow, ice, dirt and broken-down cars. But how soon do we forget that the maintenance season for roads is short and there are many potholes to be repaired? Couple that with the onslaught of tourists in their recreational vehicles, it is a 24-7 job for transportation workers. Thankfully we have the daylight hours to accommodate those long shifts. However, detours are inevitable. You cannot accurately plan a trip without allowing for potential detours.

2020 saw many more detours in my life than I can normally adjust to. Most of them can be attributed to COVID-19. Plans for important events immediately took a sharp turn. Some had to be conducted by zoom while others simply had to be cancelled. Instead of focusing on moving ongoing projects further down the road, I found myself focusing on projects that were never on my radar. Oh, and what about that dreaded word we only talk about at Halloween – MASKS? Now it dominates our daily vocabulary. I can't remember how many times I have taken that detour at the entrance of the grocery store when I forgot my mask in the car. I will never understand the phrase that we hear constantly – social distancing! That's an oxymoron if I ever heard one. Social means connecting with others while distancing means disconnecting from others.

I imagine most of you are weary of the detours in your normal routine that have been caused by the unusual events of this past year. I know I am! While I believe this new year will also produce a number of detours, I need a respite from the unexpected. I need to be able to plan without thinking about the contingency of COVID restrictions. "Lord, do you have a word of comfort for me?"

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Take up my yoke and learn from me, because I am lowly and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls." Matt 11:28-29

Jesus knew how to seek rest from the cares of the world. He found it in his relationship with the Father. Whether it was in the garden or on the mountaintop, he took time to find the rest his soul desperately needed. That invitation is for each of us as well. Seek Him, and He will give you rest for your weary soul.

Creating an Evangelism Culture

People need Jesus, the good news of the gospel and change that comes from the loving relationship with our Father in heaven. My advice is to turn off social media and the news and put scripture into your heart and mind. Seek loving, caring, close friendships with church members through community groups. Be lifted up by sharing with others in their time of need. Invest in others through your personal prayer. Talk to strangers about the hope you have for future days based on faith. Be that contagious spark of positivity for which people are looking.

No one I know will look back at 2020 as a banner year. But, even in the midst of the trials and losses, there are blessings. People still get married and new babies make their way into this world. Folks find ways to connect and continue relationships. People are strong and resilient. God's people are still faithful. God's people still give to missions and attend church, in person and online. Christians still study the truth of God's word and share that truth. New spiritual babes come into this world because God's people continue to share. Bible groups continue to connect. Some churches have seen new growth as a result of more ways to connect.

American culture is not really defined by any certain group anymore. It is too diverse and there are many who don't relate to the America in which I grew up. Their lens of viewing the world is different than mine. But, there is culture all over this wonderful America. We are a melting pot of cultures. Alaska has a different culture than the South. The West has a different culture than the East.

People groups have different cultures. This diversity is what makes this world so vibrant. Churches have cultures. What kind of culture does your church have? Is it a young culture? Is it primarily an older culture? Is it conservative, traditional, liturgical, seeker sensitive, contemporary, Southern, Mid-Western, West coast, open, closed, festive, solemn, community oriented or some combination of labels? How would you describe the culture of your church? Would your members, or even more importantly, the community around you, say your church is evangelistic? Would your church be described as a soul-winning church, where seeking to get the gospel out is a priority?

Our State Evangelism Conference will ask this question and has this theme. How do we develop an evangelistic culture in our churches? Our speakers are Alaska pastors whose churches are the leading baptismal churches in our state. Also, two out-of-state pastors will join us by Zoom, a church planter and a pastor of a long standing First Baptist Church, who are creating an evangelism culture in their churches. You can join us by watching online or in-person. We live-stream through our Facebook page or you may meet us in person at Muldoon Road Baptist Church, February 1 and 2. We start on Monday evening and go through Tuesday evening. We will be providing Tuesday lunch but you must RSVP to Heather at our office. Please call her at 907-344-9627. See our webpage for more information. I hope you will join us and encourage those around the state to help us make this a highly attended online event.

Frontier Fellowship, Anchorage two bi-vocational church leadership positions available

Worship Leader

Desired qualities: a worshipful heart, an ability to lead others in worship, be able to take direction and work with other staff.
Aim: to grow the congregation's ability and desire to worship in lifted voices.

Youth Pastor

Desired qualities: someone who is called to minister to the youth of Anchorage, having innovation and self-motivation, be able to take direction and to work with other staff.
Aim: to spend time with and disciple children.

Both of these positions require a state background check and good standing in the community.

MILEPOST MOMENTS

The staff of the Alaska Baptist Resource Network reserves the right to edit submitted information for content and space.

Our condolences to Jimmy and Kathryn Stewart in the death of Jimmy's father, Richard Stewart who died December 26, in Georgia. Expressions of sympathy may be sent to jimmy@alaskabrn.com

First Baptist Church, Eagle River began "40 Days of Prayer" on January 1. Each participant receives a morning and evening email with a prayer focus and Scripture. Interested participants should contact FBCER@mtaonline.net.

University Baptist Church, Fairbanks is meeting in their building, but also providing a service on YouTube for those who do not feel comfortable returning just yet. The church is limiting building use to groups of 75 or less. Covid-19 forced the church to speed up their transition to offering both in person and online worship and they are building a new website more conducive to reaching everyone for Jesus and helping them take "Next Steps" in their Christian walk.

Set Free, Anchorage, held a dedication service January 16. Josh Seely shared the vision of Set Free and Jim Hamilton gave a short history of Set Free Alaska. During the worship time, Zack Hamilton commissioned Josh Seely (Katie) as the pastor using 2 Corinthians 5:17 as the anthem verse. They would like to thank everyone who came to show their support.

First Baptist Church of Wasilla conducted an ordination service on Sunday, January 24. Luke Jones (Meredith) was ordained to the gospel ministry. Luke serves as the worship pastor at the church. Bobby King (Marilyn) was ordained to the deacon ministry. Mike Procter is serving as transitional pastor of FBC-Wasilla.

2000 Club First Quarter 2021

First Baptist Church, Kenai

Funds will assist with critical parsonage repairs caused by the earthquake 11/30/2018. They will be remodeling and repairing the dining/kitchen area. This space is used for extended ministry and a meeting point for small groups and one on one discipleship. After the earthquake and an electrical fire the space needs to be completely renovated to make it more useful and safe.

The purpose of the 2000 Club is to provide funds for selected Alaska Baptist Churches to purchase property, or to renovate or repair their church facilities. Sponsored by the Alaska Baptist Resource Network, the 2000 Club provides a channel through which Southern Baptists work together in a cooperative mission strategy. Funds collected are sent directly to the designated mission project recipient at the end of each month. 100 percent of contributions goes to the recipient for the quarter.

Participating in the 2000 Club is easy! Simply go to our website www.alaskabrn.com, click on the green "Give" button at the top of the page, choose "2000 Club" from the drop-down menu, and in the memo area note for which quarter you are donating or make a one-time gift for all 4 quarters.

If you prefer to give by check, make your check payable to the Alaska Baptist Resource Network and mark it for the 2000 Club. Please note the quarter for which you are contributing. Mail payment to 1750 O'Malley Road, Anchorage, Alaska 99507. For additional information, contact us at 907.344.9627, 800.883.9627, or heather@alaskabrn.com.
