2000 CLUB PROJECTS COMPLETED

Begun in 1959, the 2000 Club was formed as a way to cooperatively help mission projects in Alaska by partnering individuals, churches and associations with needs across our state. Today this Club is still in existence and is still helping to assist our churches and ministries move forward in proclaiming the gospel and establishing a gospel-centered church or missional family in every community in Alaska.

The purpose of the 2000 Club is to provide a resource of capital funds for selected Alaska Baptist mission projects. Sponsored by the Alaska Baptist Resource Network, the 2000 Club provides a channel through which Southern Baptists and others can work together in a cooperative mission strategy to assist churches and ministries with capital projects. Funds collected are sent directly to the designated mission project recipient at the end of each month. The 2000 Club seeks to enlist 2000 mission-minded people who will commit to give at least $10 a quarter to each mission project.

If you are not currently a member of the 2000 Club would you consider joining today?

It's as easy as an automatic deduction from your checking account or a gift online @ www.alaskabrn.com utilizing our "Give" tab on the homepage.

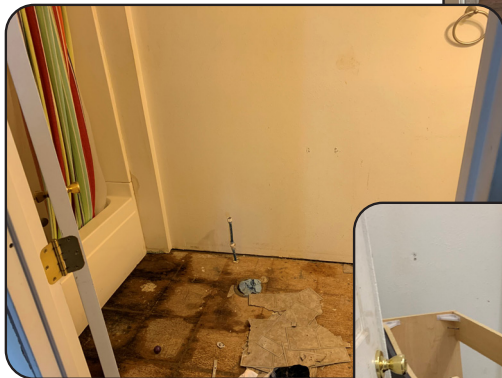

Checks may be made payable to the Alaska Baptist Resource Network and mark it for the 2000 Club. Please note the quarter for which you are contributing. Mail to 1750 O'Malley Road, Anchorage, Alaska 99507.

As we work and partner together for the sake of the Kingdom here in Alaska and around the world, may we consider how we can spur each other on to good works and glorify our God who has brought us together in this state to bear witness to His Son, our Lord, Savior and King, Jesus Christ!

The Cooperative Program (CP) Six Southern Baptist Seminaries

Many things happened in my life that had a tremendous impact on my personal growth and preparation for ministry. Not the least of these was my time of study at a Southern Baptist seminary. When I applied for admittance to the seminary, I had no idea that funds from the Cooperative Program were made available to help cover my matriculation fees. That valuable assistance allowed me to complete study for a Masters' degree in religious education as well as a PhD in Administration.

Gateway Seminary (GS) (formerly Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary) was established in 1944 in Mill Valley, California. The main campus is located in Ontario, California. Gateway draws students from every region of the US and also trains international students from around the world. It serves most of the western states with satellite campuses in Arizona, Colorado, and the Pacific Northwest. Enrollment for academic year 2019-2020 was 1921 students. Jeff Iorg is the current president.

Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (MWBTBS) was established in Kansas City, Missouri in 1957. As its name implies, it serves the states located in the Midwest, but also draws a significant number of students from abroad. Spurgeon College is the undergraduate college for baccalaureate study. Enrollment for the academic year 2019-2020 was 4374. Jason Allen is the current president.

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (NOBTS) was the third to be established by the SBC in 1917 in the city of its namesake. It was originally named the Baptist Bible Institute and strategically established in New Orleans to be the gateway seminary for missionaries to Central America. Leavell College houses the seminary's undergraduate degree program. Enrollment for the 2019-2020 academic year was 3451. Jamie Dew is the current president.

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (SEBTS) was founded in 1950 in Wake Forest, North Carolina. It was created to meet a need in the SBC's East Coast region. The undergraduate program is called the College at Southeastern. Enrollment for the 2019-2020 academic year was 2914 students. The current president of the seminary is Daniel Akin.

Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (SBTS) is the oldest seminary in the SBC having been established in 1859 in Louisville, Kentucky. For nearly half a century this seminary served as the only theological training arm of the SBC with a brief break in offering of classes during the Civil War. Southern Seminary houses Boyce College, its undergraduate college, as well as the Billy Graham School of Missions, Evangelism and Ministry. Enrollment during the 2019-2020 was 3960. R. Albert Mohler, Jr. is the president.

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (SWBTS) is the seminary where I received my theological training. It was established in 1908 in Fort Worth, TX. The seminary initially grew out of the Baylor University theological department. Classes were originally offered on the Baylor campus in Waco until 1910 when the current property now described as Seminary Hill in Fort Worth came available. Texas Baptist College (formerly known as Scarborough College) is the undergraduate school of the seminary. Enrollment for the 2019-2020 academic year was 3907. Adam Greenway is the current president.

Expecting the Unexpected

A Lame Man Healed

3 Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. <sup>2</sup> And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms from those who entered the temple; <sup>3</sup> who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms. <sup>4</sup> And fixing his eyes on him, with John, Peter said, "Look at us." <sup>5</sup> So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup> Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." <sup>7</sup> And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. <sup>8</sup> So he, leaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them—walking, leaping, and praising God. <sup>9</sup> And all the people saw him walking and praising God. <sup>10</sup> Then they knew that it was he who sat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. <sup>11</sup> Now as the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch which is called Solomon's, greatly amazed. <sup>12</sup> So when Peter saw it, he responded to the people: "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this?" (Acts 3:1-12a)

The rest of chapter 3 goes on to explain how Peter recounted to the same people how they treated the Messiah who came to set them free from their own spiritual bondage in just as unbelievable a fashion as the healing that had just taken place. Peter even explained to the crowd how this healing could take place in their own lives.

This account calls to mind the words of the Psalmist in Psalm 2:

*2 Why do the nations rage,
And the people plot a vain thing?
<sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,
<sup>3</sup> "Let us break Their bonds in pieces
And cast away Their cords from us."*

*<sup>4</sup> He who sits in the heavens shall laugh;
The Lord shall hold them in derision.*

*<sup>5</sup> Then He shall speak to them in His wrath,
And distress them in His deep displeasure:*

*<sup>6</sup> "Yet I have set My King
On My holy hill of Zion."*

*<sup>7</sup> "I will declare the decree:
The LORD has said to Me,
'You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You.*

*<sup>8</sup> Ask of Me, and I will give You
The nations for Your inheritance,
And the ends of the earth for Your possession.*

*<sup>9</sup> You shall break them with a rod of iron;
You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.' "*

*<sup>10</sup> Now therefore, be wise, O kings;
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.*

And rejoice with trembling.*

*<sup>12</sup> Kiss the Son, lest He be angry,
And you perish in the way,
When His wrath is kindled but a little.
Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.*

Why are we surprised when God does what He says He will do?

I am amazed everyday to see the wonder by which God works among the people who are obedient to and anxious to hear from Him.

The lame man who was healed had the desire to be healed and was given the opportunity to hear, obey and respond. He did so and God, working in and through him, both amazed and baffled people who were witnesses to His healing.

So many people are searching for healing. Whether they know or understand what that means is pure speculation but we who have experienced the Healer are charged with the responsibility and privilege of sharing "that which we do have."

This summer I am praying that "as we go in the name of Jesus", each one of us will gladly share with those that we encounter and celebrate the miraculous healing that only God, though the blood of Jesus, can and will provide.

With each new generation preferences, priorities, and principles change, and investment methodology is not immune. A growing number of investors, expect their money to make a positive impact on society and the world. This sentiment is especially strong in the Millennial and Generation Z cohorts (individuals born from 1981-2012). In fact, according to a 2018 study, growing demand for “Conscious Based Investing” (CBI) accounts for over $12 trillion under management. There are three primary forms that CBI investing can take:

1. Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) -

Refers to the environmental, social, and governance practices of an investment that may have a meaningful outcome on the performance of that investment. The inclusion of ESG factors serves to enhance the traditional financial analysis by identifying potential risks and opportunities that traditional technical analysis cannot. The main objective of ESG valuation remains financial performance, albeit with an overlay of social consciousness. An example, of how a company may be analyzed using ESG factors would be things like: E= energy consumption, S= Position on Human Rights, G= Quality of Management and Board Independence.

2. Socially Responsible Investing (SRI) - This method actually establishes investment options based on predetermined ethical and moral guidelines or considerations. The underlying ethics are typically based on religious principles, politics, or personal convictions. This particular practice has been used by Baptist foundations such as those of Alaska and Alabama to screen out investments in such things as alcohol, tobacco, and pornography. This tool can also be used to add investments that are specifically in line with moral principles, for example, a religious foundation investing in Christian music royalties.

3. Impact/Thematic Investing (ITI) - This area of investing has seen substantial growth between the years 2016-18 representing an investment increase of $3.3 trillion. The central goal of this area of investing is to achieve a positive social or environmental outcome that is beneficial to the society as a whole. How successful or profitable the activity may be is often of secondary concern to the underlying cause being promoted. An example of such investments in this area would be research and development into “clean” energy alternatives.

The world of alternative investing seems to be ever-expanding. As generational sentiments and priorities change so does the world of investing. This is by no means a new reality, certainly the investment world 40 years ago is much different than today. The challenge is being able to recognize these investment shifts as they occur over time.

Let God Work! read the article in The Alabama Baptist here.

Fairview Loop Baptist Church, Wasilla had a high attendance of 120 children in Vacation Bible School this year and there were about 60 workers each day. There were at least four salvations. It was a great week. The musical and block party on Sunday night was well attended and enjoyed by all.

GraceWorks at Penland Park! The team pictured is from Ohio, leading with songs, Bible stories, crafts and games. There were about 20 kids on this day. They also taught the kids a new song and the Bible verse for the week! Melissa Hancox and Alicia Wiley have been there to represent Grandview Baptist Church. It's been a lot of fun!
