Jimmy Stewart Director of Evangelism, Prayer and Collegiate Ministries

I just heard a great report about a mission team hosted by First Baptist Church Valdez who held evangelistic meetings at the local high school and 15 students were saved. On top of this, Avalanche was a big success with over 400 in attendance. A team from California Baptist University helped make Avalanche a success. DON'T FORGET the T3 application deadline (with a $50 non-refundable application fee) is April 1. Visit www.alaskabaptistconvention. com and apply on-line. Easter will be here before we know it. Please email me results of your GPS campaign. Blessings.

Congratulations to Christopher Rowell, who won the "Alaska's Got Talent" portion of the Avalanche '10 youth evangelism conference on March 12, 2010 in Anchorage. Christopher displayed exceptional talent with a saxophone solo, "Hallelujah! God is Here", and his winnings include an $8,000 scholarship to University of Mobile, a $200 gift certificate for himself and a $50 dinner gift certificate for his parents, Bruce and Polly. Bruce Rowell is pastor of First Baptist Church in Palmer. Runner up was Katelyn Stewart, who sang a solo titled "I Need You." Katelyn's winnings include a $4,000 scholarship to University of Mobile, a $50 gift certificate for herself and a $50 dinner gift certificate for her parents, Jimmy and Kathryn. Jimmy Stewart is the Director of Evangelism, Prayer and Collegiate Ministries for the Alaska Baptist Convention. In the first week of March, during the GPS Tour with the group "Voices" from University of Mobile, students from across the state auditioned to win one of ten "Golden Tickets" -- the opportunity to compete during Avalanche. Don Shannon, Dean Shannon and Dan Shilling were the three judges who had the difficult task of narrowing ten semifinalists down to three finalists. The students participating in Avalanche voted for the winner and runner-up on Friday night. Thank you to all who participated in making this event a success.

David Baldwin Executive Director

Change is difficult! It sounded easy when I talked with the Alaska Baptist President and Executive Committee and Executive Board about my intent to retire on December 30, 2010. Then I had to get a house on the market, continue to go to meetings to represent Alaska Baptists and be faced with an issue that will impact the future of Alaska Baptist work. What was I thinking?

Every pastor needs to go to www.pray4gcr.com and carefully read the proposed report by the Great Commission Resurgence Task Force. It will be presented to the Southern Baptist Convention in Orlando in June. The final report will be made public prior to the June meeting. If adopted, this report will impact Alaska Baptist work for years to come.

There are six components to the report and they are listed below with limited explanation and comment. Reading the components by themselves sounds good but when you carefully consider how they will impact Alaska Baptist work, it should cause you to ask questions.

Component #1: We believe in order for us to work together more faithfully and effectively towards the fulfillment of the Great Commission, we will ask Southern Baptists to rally towards a clear and compelling Missional vision and begin to conduct ourselves with core values that will create a new and healthy culture within the Southern Baptist Convention. We believe our Missional vision needs to be the following: As a convention of churches, our Missional vision is to present the Gospel of Jesus Christ to every person in the world and to make disciples of all the nations.

Every Southern Baptist Church should state their core values very clearly. Core values are those beliefs that should not ever be compromised!

Component #2: We believe in order for us to work together more faithfully and effectively towards the fulfillment of the Great Commission that our North American Mission Board needs to be reinvented and released. Therefore, in order to do this, we will ask Southern Baptists that the North American Mission Board prioritize efforts to plant churches in North America and to reach our nation's cities and clarify its role to lead and accomplish efforts to reach North America with the Gospel.

The North American Mission Board (NAMB) may appoint missionaries directly to states to penetrate lostness and help churches plant new churches. Special attention will be given to metropolitan areas of North America. Funding from NAMB will be projectdriven (strategy-driven), meaning these projects must be driven by the North American Missional strategy and fulfill the direct mission and priorities of NAMB. Accountability will be directly to NAMB. NAMB will develop the Leadership Center of North America to provide direct assessment of church planters and to provide training for church leaders. NAMB would become decentralized by establishing seven regional offices. Cooperative Agreements between NAMB and the State Conventions will be eliminated. The cooperative agreement determines funding and missionary support. Component #3: We believe in order for us to work together more faithfully and effectively towards the fulfillment of the Great Commission, we will ask Southern Baptists to entrust to the International Mission Board (IMB) the ministry to reach the unreached and under-served people groups without regard to any geographic limitations.

The IMB would be allowed to work in North America to reach the unreached and under-served people groups without regard to geographical limitation.

Component #4: We believe in order for us to work together more faithfully and effectively towards the fulfillment of the Great Commission, we will ask Southern Baptists to move the ministry assignments of Cooperative Program promotion and stewardship education from the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention and return them to being the work of each state Convention since they are located closer to our churches. Our call is for the state conventions to reassume their primary role in the promotion of the Cooperative Program and stewardship education, while asking the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention to support these efforts with enthusiasm and a Convention-wide perspective.

State Conventions would have the primary responsibility for both Cooperative program promotion and stewardship education. State Conventions have never had this assignment.

Component #5: We believe in order for us to work together more faithfully and effectively towards the fulfillment of the Great Commission, we will ask Southern Baptists to reaffirm the Cooperative Program as our central means of supporting Great Commission ministries; but in addition, we will ask Southern Baptists to celebrate with our churches in their Great Commission Giving that goes directly through the Cooperative Program, as well as any designated gifts given to the causes of the Southern Baptist Convention, a state convention or a local association.

Great Commission Giving includes Cooperative Program giving and designated gifts given to the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), a state convention or a local association. This allows designated mission gifts to count as Cooperative Program giving when determining the number of Messenger representation allowed at the associational, state and SBC levels.

Component #6: We believe in order for us to work together more faithfully and effectively towards the fulfillment of the Great Commission, that a greater percentage of total Cooperative Program funds should be directed to the work of the International Mission Board. Therefore, we will ask Southern Baptists to support this goal by affirming an intention to raise the International Mission Board allocation for the 2011-2012 budget year to 51%, a move that is both symbolic and substantial. At the same time, we will ask Southern Baptists to reduce the percentage allocated to Facilitating Ministries by 1% as part of our initial effort to send a greater percentage of total Southern Baptist Convention mission funds to the nations.

The IMB currently receives 50% of all Cooperative Program funds received by the Southern Baptist Executive Board, Nashville, Tennessee.

Thank you for allowing me to serve as your Alaska Baptist Missionary through the Executive Director position. I pray your follow-up to GPS at Easter is going well.

Mike Procter Director of Missions and Church Planting

Sunday, April 4 is Easter, the day we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. In I Corinthians 15:3b-4, the apostle Paul reminds us "...Christ died for our sins, as the Scriptures say. He was buried, and three days later He was raised to life, as the Scriptures say." Then, in verses 54b-57 He proclaims, "...Death has lost the battle! Where is its victory? Where is its sting? Sin is what gives death its sting, and the Law is the power behind sin. But thank God for letting our Lord Jesus Christ give us the victory!" Yes, while everyone who lives will die someday, the grave holds no power over us, and because of what Jesus Christ has done for us, we will be raised to everlasting life. Praise the Lord!

For Southern Baptists there is another event closely associated with Easter -- the Annie Armstrong Offering for North American Missions. This offering assists with reaching North America for Jesus Christ and when combined with your congregation's mission support through the Cooperative Program, provides resources to enable our congregations and missionaries to present the gospel of Christ.

In Alaska, the Annie Armstrong offering is used in a myriad of ways: church planting grants, church revitalization and strengthening grants, evangelism training, leadership training; salary support and travel assistance for our jointly appointed Alaska Baptist Convention and North American Mission Board missionaries; administrative support in the Alaska Baptist Convention offices; block party trailers and other evangelistic resources; summer missionaries, Mission Service Corps missionaries and other short-term mission personnel. As you pray and ask the Lord what He would have you give to the 2010 Annie Armstrong Offering for North American Missions, remember you are supporting missions work in Alaska through Brenda Crim, David George, John Forrester, Linda Hokit, Jimmy Stewart, Don Shannon, Mike Procter, Debra Long, Betsy Shilling, Sylvia Rylander, Gary Bearce, Butch Strickland, Paul Wells and Mike Purple. You are also supporting the following congregations/ministries that receive financial assistance: Valley Life Fellowship, Filipino Baptist Church (Ketchikan), Chugach Resort Ministries, Samoa Alaska Baptist Church, CrossCountry Church, Cowboy Church of Anchorage, Juneau Korean Baptist Church, Aquillag Baptist Church, Kiana Baptist Mission, Kobuk Baptist Mission, Togiak Baptist Mission, King Salmon Community Baptist Chapel and Shungnak Baptist Mission.

It is my prayer that you will have a glorious day on Easter, as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, and you will ask the Lord what He would have you give to the Annie Armstrong Offering for North American Missions. Give cheerfully knowing that it will be used to reach Alaska for Jesus Christ.

Don Shannon Director of Ministries and Mission Education

We all sense that the culture is changing rapidly, and we grope for answers as to how that affects our ability to fulfill the Great Commission. The word most used to describe this shifting context is "postmodernism," but few can agree fully on what the term means. With even the definition of postmodernism being such a moving target, defining church outreach strategies seems even more difficult.

Reaching the postmodern requires that we learn to evangelize an increasingly secularized culture. There are no programs with "three simple steps" to reaching our changing world. Instead, we need to become comfortable with a process that helps churches build relevant and effective ministries. It also means overcoming the obstacles of tradition and technique, which requires an openness that is often absent among believers mired in cultural expressions of Christianity. It is a time when our own cultural presuppositions are challenged, regardless of the era from which they are derived.

Are we ready to think outside the box to reach those outside the church? In thinking outside the box I want to return to the Book. We are Great Commission churches when we remain faithful to the gospel and simultaneously seek to contextualize the gospel so the gospel engages the hearers and transforms them. We need new churches, not because they are trendy or cutting edge, but that are fresh expressions of the unchanging gospel.

Just then an expert in the law stood up to test Him, saying, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written law?" in the He it?" him. "How do asked you read ²⁷ He answered: Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself. ²⁸ "You've answered correctly," He told him. "Do this and you will live." Luke 10:25-28 (HCSB)

The unchanging gospel is a message of love: God's love seen in our salvation through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ; love for God seen in our obedient worship and service; and love for others seen in the touch of kindness offered without any strings.

The church that rediscovers this missional nature will engage the culture while remaining faithful to the "… faith that was delivered to the saints once for all." Jude 1:3 (HCSB) The result may look different to us but not to God. From His perspective, the word has become flesh in a new setting and we will truly become missionaries in our communities.
