Did you know?

During the American Revolution, the legal separation of the Thirteen Colonies from Great Britain occurred on July 2, 1776, when the Second Continental Congress voted to approve a resolution of independence that had been proposed in June by Richard Henry Lee of Virginia declaring the United States independent from Great Britain<sup>1,2</sup>. After voting for independence, Congress turned its attention to the Declaration of Independence, a statement explaining this decision, which had been prepared by a Committee of Five, with Thomas Jefferson as its principal author. Congress debated and revised the wording of the Declaration, finally approving it on July 4.

Unique or historical celebrations:

- Held since 1785, the Bristol Fourth of July Parade in Bristol, Rhode Island is the oldest continuous Independence Day celebration in the United States.
- Since 1868, Seward, Nebraska has held a celebration on the same town square. In 1979, Seward was designated "America's Official Fourth of July City Small Town USA" by resolution of Congress. Seward has also been proclaimed Nebraska's "Official Fourth of July City" by Governor James Exon in proclamation. Seward is a town of 6,000 but swells to 40,000+ during the July 4 celebrations<sup>3</sup>.
- Since 1972, Nathan's Hot Dog Eating Contest is held in Coney Island, Brooklyn, New York City.
- Since 1959, the International Freedom Festival is jointly held in Detroit, Michigan and Windsor, Ontario during the last week of June each year as a mutual celebration of Independence Day and Canada Day (July 1). It culminates in a large fireworks display over the Detroit River.
- On the Capitol lawn in Washington, D.C., "A Capitol Fourth", a free concert, precedes the fireworks and attracts over half a million people annually.

"On the following day, when the formal vote of Congress was taken, the resolutions were approved by twelve Colonies—all except New York. The original Colonies, therefore, became the United States of America on July 2, 1776."

Alaska Baptist Convention

Alaska Baptists have been blessed to have student summer missionaries serving in our state. A student missionary is a high school, college, or graduate student who serves 6 to 10 weeks assisting local churches as they seek to accomplish the Great Commission through evangelism, discipleship, and church planting. These young men and women serve on the front lines of missions, participating in experiences designed to help students develop a lifetime of missionary service. The North American Mission Board celebrates the calling-out of those whom God is sending across the United States and Canada, including some of the most under-reached and underserved areas in North America. These young people have a vision to see as many people as possible come to faith in Christ. Some of the qualifications to become a student missionary include:

- Be a committed and maturing Christian and have a desire for missionary development
- Be willing to verbally share the gospel with others
- Be an active member of an SBC church and affirm the Baptist Faith & Message 2000
- Be available to serve the entire length of the project
- Invest 25 hours per week

The Bible is God's Word. All scripture is inspired by God and is inerrant and infallible.

Is it safe to say many of us have biblical passages that have meant a lot to us? It might have been a verse that spoke to us on the day we became a follower of Jesus Christ; maybe it was a verse that ministered to our heart when we were grieving; it may have been a verse that provided strength to get through a difficult time.

In my life, there are three passages that have been an integral part of my walk with the Lord:

- Lamentations 3:22-23, "It is because of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is Thy faithfulness." This verse is a daily reminder of God's grace and mercy in my life and an assurance He will never fail me.
- Deuteronomy 11:11-12, "But the land you are about to go into and take for your own is a land of hills and valleys. It drinks water from the rain of heaven. The Lord your God cares for this land. His eyes watch over it from the beginning to the end of the year." This is the passage of scripture God used to confirm my call to Alaska nearly 30 years ago.
- Leviticus 13:40, "If a man's hair has fallen off of his head, he is bald: yet is he clean". It does not take a lot of thought to know why I like this verse.

And speaking of hair, in the May/June issue of Healthy Living Made Simple, it was reported that between 1999 - 2010 the number of men in America who color their hair rose from two to seven percent. The number one reason a man colors his hair is to cover up the gray so he looks younger. In a society that is youth conscience, men and women often go to extraordinary lengths to appear younger. But hair coloring is a simple procedure compared to the many that have undergone plastic surgery. It amazes me that someone would be willing to endure a surgical procedure for no other reason than to look younger!

In Genesis 1:26-27, we are reminded that God made men and women in His likeness. Obviously, that does not refer to our physical being because, as we are reminded in John 4:24, "God is a Spirit; and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and truth." Genesis reminds us that all people have been created by God and that in each one of us our spirit or soul was made in His likeness. If we are created in God's image, what are we doing to become more like Him? Are we willing to exercise the discipline to grow in the grace and knowledge of His Word and to become more like Him? Do we have the desire to exhibit Jesus Christ by the way we live? How do we present a positive picture (witness or testimony) to the life-saving and life-changing power of Jesus Christ in our lives?

Jimmy Stewart
Director of Evangelism and Church Development

I have been involved in some incredible small groups; they have developed beyond their primary function of teaching the word of God. Small group members have become family and have contributed to my well-being. When I am able to connect with people beyond the surface, I find I am more sensitive to the world around me. I listen more closely and see people in a different way. When I reach below the surface and discover God's purpose and meaning in my life, I tend to engage with people and participate at a level that influences all aspects of my life. In Acts 2:42 we read about a community that learned and lived together and literally transformed the community around them. I have yet to be part of a small group that has accomplished that last stage of development. What would our community look like if small groups met the needs of those around them? Wouldn't believers be encouraged? A church that fills needs through Christ would not be anemic; it would have power, energy and love and would care for its members. I want to be part of a small group of believers who want to make a difference. Do you believe that small groups matter? What evidence do you see in your own church that small groups matter? How have lives been changed? What needs have been met? If a particular small group didn't exist, would it be missed? Are people energized and focused on the needs around them because of the small group to which they belong? Do those who are currently not in a small group see a reason to join? Today's younger generation wants to be part of something that will make a difference. If you are seeking to add young people to your church, seek to develop small groups that matter. For more information, see the website www.groupsmatter.org.

Butch Strickland Director of Church Planting and Missions

My most memorable patriotic moment took place in the Miami airport when we returned after our first term as missionaries. We had been gone 3 ½ years. First, there was a sense of recognition - everything was as we remembered. There was a sense of belonging as we made our way through the area where documents are examined. There were long lines for those from other countries trying to enter our wonderful country, however, there were also booths clearly marked, "U. S. Citizens." Finally, when the moment came, I handed my passport to the agent and he looked at where I had been and commented on how long we had been out of the country. He stamped the passport, handed it back to me and said. "Welcome home."

We are blessed to be able to call this country our home. The abundance we enjoy is unprecedented. Our history is extraordinary. Our power unequaled. And our freedom.... how can we describe our freedom? Unparalleled? Precious? Envied? Costly? Fragile?

Do we take freedom for granted? Do we abuse it? Is it the final word on freedom? No. There is a freedom even greater.

- "Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom." 2 Corinthians 3:17
- "For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a voke of slavery." Galatians 5:1
- "And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." John 8:32
- "So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." John 8:36
- "For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death." Romans 8:2

As wonderful as our freedom is in this country, there is a freedom that exceeds it. It is the freedom we enjoy in Christ. We are no longer slaves, but are free to enjoy "our citizenship that is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself." Philippians 3:20-21

A.W. Tozer said it like this, "In almost everything that touches our everyday life on earth, God is pleased when we're pleased. He wills that we be as free as birds to soar and sing our maker's praise without anxiety." Welcome home!

s I reflect on the sacrifice our Lord Jesus Christ made on our behalf so we could be reconciled to God through the unblemished blood of Jesus Christ (the only acceptable and holy payment for sin), I am drawn to the words of the apostle Paul. He charged us to present ourselves a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God which is our reasonable service (Romans 12:1). Paul expanded on this concept when he wrote we are not our own, we have been bought by a price (1 Corinthians 6:19-20). Throughout scripture, we are reminded that the earth is the Lord's and all it contains (Psalms 24:1). When we look at Scripture, we are led to the inescapable conclusion that each of us is part of God's "estate." We are not owners in the absolute sense, but managers (stewards). When stewardship is truly understood, God is in every aspect of life. He is first with finances, time, and talents. Often when we think of stewardship, we think in terms of money and the giving of a tithe. We must ask ourselves, do we give God 2.4 hours of the day (10 percent) to pray, study His word, and meditate on His teachings? Do we devote at least ten percent of our God-given spiritual gifts to advance His kingdom through service in the local church and other ministry opportunities? To faithfully practice stewardship means to be conscious of all these things in our Christian lives, and have a greater appreciation for the grace and mercy of the Lord. It is easy to get lost for hours in a good book, movie, or outdoor activities; yet how difficult it is for us to give time, talent, and money for God's purposes. It is easy to be rude to God and allow things to take a higher priority in our lives then God. The act of becoming a Christian is easy because it is found wholly within Christ. Living the Christian life however, and being a steward of the Lord God Almighty, is decidedly more difficult because it requires each of us to sacrifice the desires of our nature and be reborn to the desires and will of Christ on a continual basis.

Water, water everywhere.....

Mike Procter, Executive Director/Treasurer

Recently I read that approximately 79 percent of the earth's surface is covered with water. Of that, 98 percent is saltwater, so only two percent is fresh water that has to meet the needs of 100 percent of the earth's population — a population whose body is approximately 60 percent water. The average person needs a minimum of one gallon of water a day and can live only three to five days without water.

Percentages play a role in our everyday lives. When you go to a restaurant, don't you figure the tip based on a percentage of the total bill?

The Bible instructs us to give a tithe to the Lord. People question me about the ten percent tithe – should it be based on the gross or net income? If we tithe, should we give an additional offering? If so, how much? How about setting something aside for retirement? If you start early, it is not necessary to set aside hundreds of dollars a month in order to build a retirement fund. For example, if a 25-year-old begins by saving $50 a month ($600 a year), at 3 percent interest for 40 years, at the age of 65, that person will have saved over $45,000 for retirement. Imagine, saving the cost of three lattes or mochas a week and accruing $45,000! The average person has approximately $75,000 in retirement, and of 100 people starting employment at the age of 25 and the aim of retiring at age 65, one percent will be considered wealthy, four percent will have adequate retirement, 63 percent will be dependent on Social Security, family, friends or charity and 29 percent will be dead. We need to be prepared for retirement. Are you?

One of the ministries of the Alaska Baptist Foundation is to assist Alaska Baptists with preparing for retirement and estate planning. You do not need a lot of money to start but it is important that you do start and the younger you start the more you will be able to set aside. If you would like additional information, please contact Adam Long, Foundation Coordination Director, at adam@alaskabaptistfoundation.com or 800-883-9627.
