First Baptist Church, Valdez

FBC hosted their 43rd annual Ladies Christmas Tea on December 7 at the Valdez Civic Center and welcomed 280 women to the event. They gave away 36 baskets, and each attendee received a Christmas ornament, devotional booklet and tract. The event is attended by Christian and non-Christian women alike and is an evangelistic opportunity for the church. The guest speaker from Wasilla was Adele Morgan, a talented musician, songwriter and speaker who shared how God transformed her life. The 2017 event will be on December 12 at 7:00 p.m.

University Baptist Church, Fairbanks

The UBC college/career group will attend hockey games this month, and enjoy meals in members' homes. The BCM Bible study has resumed. On February 5, they will have a Big Game Party, in conjunction with Souper Bowl Sunday, and donate non-perishable protein items to the Fairbanks Food Bank. On February 25, the church will hold their first ministry banquet.

New Trends in 2017

Happy New Year! I am truly excited about what God has in store for us in 2017. His promise to give life abundantly should cause us to rest in the fact that He is in control. We can know that whatever happens this year is in keeping with His divine will and purpose.

I would like to include in this article some research from Dr. Thom Rainer at Lifeway regarding some recent shifts that have been observed in churches across America. These shifts could become trends that take root in 2017.

5 Seismic Shifts in the Church

Dr. Thom Rainer, president of LifeWay Christian Resources, spoke to a large gathering of Christian educators and state leaders from 39 of 42 states at the Ridgecrest Conference Center in North Carolina. He shared five seismic shifts taking place in the church today. According to Dr. Rainer, these are not full-blown trends yet, but they may become that in the very near future.

Seismic Shift 1: New normative attendance levels

More churches will be in the 300-500 size range, and churches that average 75-200 in attendance will be very common. Large churches with over 1000 in attendance will be on the decline. The 3 reasons for this shift? (1) Millennials prefer closer community that is found in smaller congregations (2) The multi-site revolution is dispersing the crowds...churches grow to a mid-size level and then begin another church (3) Adversarial local governments – they are preventing some churches from building and expanding in part because there is no tax revenue generated by the expansion. Dr. Rainer told the crowd that he has served as a special witness in court cases, verifying that the lack of construction will harm the church if it is not allowed to build.

Seismic Shift 2: The virtual revolution

Churches are discovering they can save money and create greater efficiencies if they outsource some of the work that is typically done by full or part-time employees. The two biggest roles being outsourced according to Dr. Rainer? The church secretary position and the financial assistant position (bookkeeping). The benefits to the church are (1) greater funds for ministry (2) greater efficiency (3) decrease in liability for the church.

Seismic Shift 3: Massive downsizing of facility infrastructure

Churches are facing challenges with their facilities. Some churches have many square feet that are not utilized, or are underutilized. In the future, Dr. Rainer says three things will continue to happen: (1) churches will build smaller facilities (2) remodeling worship space for smaller capacity will become normative (3) churches will discover new ways to use their facilities during the week.

Seismic Shift 4: The small group revolution

Churches are beginning to increase their emphasis on discipleship through groups (a great thing!). This shift will be as big as the worship revolution of the past three decades. Churches will be healthier because of it. And churches are learning that discipleship requires strategic planning.

Seismic Shift 5: The continually learning leader

Church leaders will be L3 leaders (Life Long Learners). Gone are the days of earning a terminal degree – church leaders will continue to press forward and challenge themselves. They will be systematic about how they organize their lives to make time for reading, school, and conferencing.

How do you see these 5 shifts playing out in your church, city, and state?

Thankful

I cannot express my thankfulness for Southern Baptists across Alaska, the United States and overseas. It was amazing for my family to see the outpouring of support and prayers throughout my stay at Harborview Medical Center Burn Unit in Seattle. I cannot say enough about the love we felt from all of you. On top of that, our state staff -- Randy, Betsy, Sylvia, Debra and Adam -- were incredible. My family is truly blessed. We have never experienced the power of prayer like we have in the past five months. I am a walking miracle because you prayed. Do not dismiss, or take lightly, the effectiveness of righteous men and women who prayed and continue to pray for us. I certainly will not! I am looking forward to sharing my testimony on Monday, February 6, during the State Evangelism Conference in Anchorage. Please plan to attend and let us praise our Father in heaven for His good word and works.
