TIMES OF REFRESHING!

I love the way Acts of the Apostles opens following the Lord's resurrection. Jesus offers his final challenge to the apostles (1:7-8) to take the gospel to the ends of the earth. Simon Peter emerges as the leader that Christ prophesied would become the Rock upon which the church would be built. He leads the church in Jerusalem to grow from 120 believers to over 8,000 in the course of just a few weeks.

The promise of the Holy Spirit becomes a reality on the Day of Pentecost as believers are refreshed and empowered for their commission. In Peter's second sermon in Acts 3, after healing the lame beggar, he calls for repentance and returning to the Lord. Oh, how we need to hear that message again today. It comes with a promise in verse 19 . . . "so that your sins may be wiped away, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord."

Yes, we are in desperate need of "times of refreshing"!

Each year, we have a Ministers and Spouses Conference as a time of refreshing and encouragement to remain faithful to the task of taking the gospel to the remotest part of the earth. This year, we will be hosting a team of conference leaders from the "ReFRESH" network developed by Michael Catt, pastor of Sherwood Baptist Church in Albany, GA. I'm excited to partner with Dr. Catt in offering this opportunity to ministers and wives of the Alaska Baptist Convention.

Here is some important information to prepare for this amazing event:

Jimmy Stewart,
Director of Evangelism

There is a growing sense in our convention that we need help because, despite our best efforts, our churches and members are decreasing in number, rather than increasing. We are still the body of Christ and the light of the world; members with many talents and abilities; people who are able to overcome the darkness pervading our communities; the hope of the world. The "core" of the church needs to be strong, just as a person's body needs a strong core. During my hospital stay, nurses and doctors were amazed that a 58-year-old guy could move around without much help from others. They asked if I needed help sitting up during wound care and I did not. What they didn't realize were the countless core-strengthening exercises I had done prior to my accident. And I am so grateful I enjoyed doing core-strengthening routines because when I needed it most, my core strength was there. The "core" of the church is the disciples who are reproducing disciples. Every church that practices this discipline is a church with core strength. Do your members understand their role in making disciples? Or do they believe that is the role of paid church staff? Does your church have a process in place to train members to become disciple makers? Just as there are core-strengthening exercises for the human body, there are many exercises to become strong in your discipling "core." As pastor and leader of your church, I suggest these C.O.R.E. actions to help members become disciple makers:

C: communicate every week with members.

O: organize training to teach disciple making.

R: request members attend training and start exercising their skills.

E: express appreciation to those who are using the training to make disciples.

Many churches are already doing this type of training, but are you intentional in the process of building discipling core-strength with your members? If your church already has a process in place to train disciples, I would like to hear from you. Other churches in our convention might benefit from your program. Call me if you want to discuss ways to increase "core-strength" in your congregation.

THANK YOU!

The Alaska Baptist Convention wishes to thank all those who made the 2017 State Evangelism Conference such a success!

First Baptist Church and members for hosting the event; Pastor Day and Patti Coghill for assisting with all the pre-and-post setup/teardown;

The Alabama State Board of Missions staff for taking on the lion's share of cost and planning:

Dr. Rick Lance, Executive Director; Sammy (Carol) Gilbreath, Director of Evangelism; Billy (Patty) Harris, Evangelism Associate; Phil Winningham, Evangelism Associate; and Lori McGough, Evangelism ministry assistant;

And to our featured guests and speakers:

Dr. John (Charman) Brock, pastor of Highland Baptist Church in Florence, Alabama; Wayne Jenkins, Director of Evangelism and Church Growth Team for the Louisiana Baptist Convention; John Meador, pastor of First Eules in Eules, Texas; Ken (Ginny) Whitten, pastor of Idlewild Baptist Church in Lutz, Florida; and Danny Wolfe, founder and director of Danny Wolfe Ministries in Huntsville, Alabama.

Thank you for your continued support of the Alaska Baptist Convention!

Abide ...by all means

"Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me...." John 15:4-10
