Vision: Build the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth

The little lad from London was so proud that he had learned the Lord's Prayer from memory, he begged to recite it to his parents. He began:

Our Farnham, who art in Hendon, Harrow be thy name;
Thy Kingston Come, thy Wimbledon, In Erith as it is in Hendon . . .

Just like this little boy, sometimes we miss the impact of what Jesus was teaching the disciples through the model prayer because of our own cultural context. While I have recited it many times in English and Russian, I have rarely taken the time to understand the phrase:

. . . Your Kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven; Matthew 6:10-11

I live in America where we do not have a kingdom or a king, but a government and a president. The kingdom of heaven that I read about in God's Word is such a mystery to me because I have no context for that system. While my mind tells me it is another realm, another world, my spirit knows with confidence that it is real.

Matthew's gospel references the kingdom more times than any of the other synoptic gospels. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus introduces the concept of the kingdom. When Jesus commissioned his disciples, he said, "As you go, proclaim: 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.'" (Matt 10:7) It doesn't just exist in another realm, but it is near to us here on earth. Later in Matthew's gospel, Jesus continues to teach them about the kingdom in chapter 16:18-19.

"And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overpower it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven."

It becomes very clear to me that the task of the church is to build the kingdom of heaven on earth. In order to do that, we must have the right keys to unlock the riches of God's grace and extend the invitation to enter the kingdom of the Heavenly Father. There is power in the keys that He has given us! We have the Word of God, the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit, the direct line of communication through prayer, and the fellowship of believers. These keys are sufficient, even when we are weak and inadequate. May we be faithful in building the church and extending the Kingdom of heaven on earth.

Faithful

A few days spent in the antebellum South conjure up not only memories of a (somewhat) bygone era, but also beckon the imagination to write its own script of characters, events and circumstances that brought what we perceive now, into being.

Large plantation-style homes with giant columns and ornate wood trim surrounded by vast agricultural and livestock fields; giant towering oak, hickory, pine and pecan trees with branches outstretched shading huge lawns, entice a road-weary traveler to stop and wonder...

Rural towns with historic landmarks, buildings and geographical features sit just out of sight of the modern, busy Interstate (that rush humanity on to the next appointment, meeting, or obligation), waiting and wishing that someone would notice, pull in and be interested.

Crossroads, settlements and even entire counties bear the names of influential, important and even infamous individuals and families whose tenacity, endurance and perseverance made a difference, a legacy and a future for others.

And the churches....so many churches.

Small family chapels, enormous red brick giants and everything in between. Old churches, new churches, store fronts and cathedral looking churches; traditional churches, modern churches, churches that don't look like churches...where did we get all these churches?

On the evening I wrote this article, I stayed at an old fashioned, pine slab, tin roofed lodge off Straughn School Road in Andalusia, Alabama.

The table at which I sat was fashioned from a pine tree grown and harvested on the property. Antique furniture, fixtures and relics abounded in the spacious, plank paneled rooms. The décor was themed, tasteful, purposeful... and proper. Three hand-hewn vertical posts, majestically on display and supporting the center beam of the main lodge, were originally the chief supports of the property's barn.

Hmmm...

It's been said that those who fail to learn from history are bound and destined to repeat it. I suppose in some contexts this statement is profoundly true...to the detriment of humanity, society and yes, even Christianity. In another context, however, perhaps it would be better to both learn from, and attempt to, repeat history.

Is it possible for us to learn from a tree? Or three? From the centerpiece of the barn to the centerpiece of the mansion...
