An Open Letter of Appreciation to Sister State Conventions

Greetings from the great state of Alaska.

Not too long ago, I had the opportunity of speaking in several churches in the south for an associational missions conference. It seemed that every church had a guy named Bubba in the congregation. One Bubba, who was a deacon in his church, explained that he was the youngest in the pecking order of seven children in his family. He was, however, the largest of them all. As he was growing up, his size deceived others into believing he could do more than he really could. Fortunately, he had some wise and loving siblings who were committed to keeping him humble, but like any good family, they cared enough for their little brother to protect him and encourage him in situations where he lacked ability and experience. That's just what families do!

While Alaska may be the largest state in the nation, we are still one of the youngest in the Southern Baptist family. Even though we will celebrate our 75th anniversary in 2020, we don't have the depth and experience that our brothers and sisters in the Lower 48 do. We are extremely grateful for the assistance that other state conventions have offered to the Alaska Baptist Convention in the past.

You have not only come to provide assistance with ministry projects and resources to accomplish these, but you have sent some of your own pastors and leaders to plant their lives in Alaskan communities and churches to labor full-time, shoulder to shoulder, with us. You have made commitments to return year after year with volunteer teams from your churches to give that little boost and word of encouragement that is so needed in the moment. You have shared your leaders as they have come to lead training seminars and conferences to prepare our folks for effective ministry. Your sacrifice has demonstrated the love of family that makes the Father proud of His children.

As we approach this momentous milestone in our history, it means a great deal to have our brothers and sisters stand with us and applaud what God has allowed us to accomplish together for the sake of the Kingdom. Please know that you are welcome in Alaska anytime, as our house is your house. Thank you for always being there in the good times as well as the bad and for challenging us to stay the course for the glory of our Heavenly Father.

May God bless you abundantly as you faithfully serve in the field to which God has divinely called you.

“Who’s Your One?”

As I stood and glared at the falling snow on this late April date, following Easter, I had to remember it is going to be summer and that brings me to my topic today. Summer brings many opportunities to get people together, giving us opportunities to proclaim Christ. How do you plan to proclaim Christ this summer? Many will conduct block parties, backyard Bible clubs and VBS. Some will sponsor sports events or park parties. I hear that each church that attempts some type of outreach like this has some element of success: new families attending or individuals who hear and follow Christ.

Your church should have received a box entitled “Who’s your one?” This emphasis is about the Holy Spirit impressing you to invest in someone for the sake of the gospel. All our churches can participate in this national emphasis. Anyone in any church can take upon themselves the goal of reaching one for Christ. It doesn’t take any budget, maybe just a few announcements. Impress on your people to share Christ this summer. People are more inclined to be out and about, giving us opportunities to connect.

Suggest that your people prayer-walk their neighborhoods. Folks could do a small neighborhood BBQ to get to know one another. This summer, help your people to start thinking about that someone God is bringing into their circle of friendship. We all need to be ready, open and willing to increase the size of our circle for new friends. Don’t shut out potential relationships because you have a myopic view that says “I have enough friends.” I want to increase my circle of friendship. I want as many people, of all nationalities, of races, other religions and different lifestyles in my life. I love people and have experienced the love of people. God’s body and total strangers have showed love to me and my family. Time spent with others will open doors and love is the key that will open hearts to the gospel. Consider this summer, “Who’s Your One?” Who is God drawing to you and you to them? Let God open hearts, minds, conversations and new eternal friendships.

MILEPOST MOMENTS

The staff of the Alaska Baptist Convention reserves the right to edit submitted information for content and space.

Grandview Baptist Church had a busy month. A small group of ladies spent an evening with the girls at the Birchwood Behavioral Health to teach them to sew with beads. Interspersed with instruction were conversations about fashion, hairstyles, dogs, family and singing. One girl decided beading was not going to be her hobby.

The others began adding beads to the cloth purses we brought for them to decorate. When the evening ended the girls invited us to return with the understanding that they would teach us to crochet. We all had a great time.

Grand Prix Race Track

al talk by guest, Robin Covington.

We had a fun turn out for our Grand Prix race. It was great to see parents and teens get involved with their own cars. Several of the kids actually built their cars with the GraceWorks team during our spring break camp the previous week. We've been excited to see several families and teens from our community coming regularly to these family events and the AWANA program.

The ladies celebrated spring with a tea. It was a great time of fellowship with an ice-breaker, catered lunch, a Jeopardy game, prizes and an interesting devotion-

Wayland Baptist University, Anchorage Campus held its biennial graduation exercises April 12. Dr. Eric Ash, Dean/Executive Director of the Anchorage Campus, and Dr. Elane Seebo, Vice President of External Campuses, presented Tom Hoffman, pastor of Fairview Loop Baptist Church, Wasilla, with the Distinguished Alumni Award.

First Baptist Church, Valdez, sponsored a free showing of the movie "Indivisible" for the Valdez community. They hosted approximately 230 people for the event.

University Baptist Church, Fairbanks will hold its monthly Men's Breakfast on Saturday, May 4, the same day as UAF Graduation when three of the College and Career group will be graduating. Wednesday, May 8, is the second of three yearly business meetings. MOPS will meet on Wednesday, May 1, and their last meeting for the school year will be May 15. The church office will be closed Monday, May 27, for Memorial Day.

Set Free Church celebrated Easter with a baptism Sunday night. There were about 30 people present.

Set Free Church is a new church plant partnered with College Heights Baptist Church and Roots Family Church Soldotna. They have a core group of 20 people. Jim Hamilton is serving as pastor.

First Baptist Church, Anchorage, undertook putting together Easter baskets for the children of Cold Bay. There are seven children in the city and FBC, Anchorage provided one basket for each child.
